Do you want to “Create your own job!”?

Tampa – CareerSource Tampa Bay and CareerSource Pinellas are looking for participants in the next round of the Startup Quest entrepreneurial training.

Startup Quest is a no-cost, hands-on, 10-session, entrepreneurial training program for underemployed or unemployed professionals with a bachelor’s degree or higher.

Startup Quest shifts the mindset from “find a job” to “create a job” by increasing participants’ abilities to pursue their own ideas for self-employment.

Training focuses on the processes and steps required for a hypothetical business startup including writing a business plan and developing an investor pitch.

Participants for Startup Quest must attend the Information Session held June 16th from 1 – 4 p.m. at Feather Sound Country Club. For more information go online to www.startupquest.org
