Records Retention

The Florida Public Records Law requires that public agencies, such as CareerSource Tampa Bay, retain public records in accordance with the Department of State's published required retention schedules. CareerSource Tampa Bay is also subject to federal record retention laws and regulations.

CareerSource Tampa Bay shall retain all public records/documents for at least the minimum times shown in the Department of State's retention schedules for GS1-SL, State and Local Governments (the schedule that must be followed by CareerSource Tampa Bay) or the applicable federal program retention schedule. All staff must retain all public records/documents as described within this policy. Information on the General Record Schedules can be found on the Florida Department of State, Division of Library and Information Services, Records Management website: https://dos.myflorida.com/library-archives/records-management/general-records-schedules/

CareerSource Tampa Bay's primary information and records management systems are ATLAS for programmatic records and a specified drive on the internal server for other records. Where possible, all paper documents received or created should be converted to digital format (pdf) and saved into either ATLAS or on our internal server as appropriate. Once a public record is digitized, CareerSource Tampa Bay shall maintain the electronic copy as the public record and the paper copy shall then be considered a duplicate. As a duplicate, the administrative value is immediately lost, the paper copy can be disposed of in accordance with this policy's disposition requirements.

In limited circumstances, such as medical records, there may be a need for paper files to be created and maintained in accordance with the records retention schedule.

Disposition of Public Records

Contained within the Department of State's Records Management Manual is a requirement that agencies "dispose of records that have met their retention requirements and are no longer needed." There are three general requirements for disposing of public records: 1) CareerSource Tampa Bay must ensure that the records have met all retention requirements; 2) CareerSource Tampa Bay must document internally the disposition of any public records in accordance with Rule 1B-24.003(9)(d), Florida Administrative Code.; and 3) Rule 1B-24.003(10), Florida Administrative Code, specifies that destruction of public records must be done "in a manner that safeguards the interests of the state and the safety, security, and privacy of individuals."

CareerSource Tampa Bay shall adhere to the Department of State's published guidelines regarding the physical disposition or destruction of public records/documents, including

- A. Delaying record disposition due to pending or reasonably anticipated legal action, an audit that has not closed, a current public record request, or a government investigation has been launched or is reasonably anticipated;
- B. Ensuring that Personally Identifiable Information is protected during the disposition; and
- C. Completing and maintaining disposition records permanently. The Department of State's published guidelines require that CareerSource Tampa Bay identify and document the following when disposing of public records/documents (with the exception of records that have retention of "Retain until obsolete, superseded or administrative value is lost.") This shall be accomplished using the CareerSource Tampa Bay record disposition form.

- 1) Records retention schedule number;
- 2) Item number;
- 3) Record series title;
- 4) Inclusive dates of the records;
- 5) Volume in cubic feet for paper records; for electronic records, record the number of bytes and/or records and/or files if known, or indicate that the disposed records were in electronic form;
- 6) Disposition action (manner of disposition) and date; and
- 7) Verification from the company destroying the records.

No staff, other than the Public Records Coordinator, has the authority to dispose of any record or document unless it is a Personal and Private Document as defined above or the retention schedule designates the record retention as "Obsolete, superseded or Administrative value is lost." If the record is designated on the attached schedule as "Obsolete, superseded or Administrative value is lost" staff may dispose of the document by placing it in one of the shred bins located throughout the offices of CareerSource Tampa Bay.

At the end of each program year the Public Records Coordinator shall send out a communication to appropriate staff instructing them on records that shall be prepared for disposal and others that must be prepared for retention.
